On October 15, 2019, Defendant filed a similar request for counsel to file a motion to dismiss his 924(c) conviction. (Doc. 661.) At that time, I ordered Defendant's attorney, Irving Cohen, to submit a response to Defendant's request. (Doc. 662.) On November 21, 2019, Mr. Cohen filed a letter with the Court explaining that he would not be filing a motion because the Supreme Court's recent decision in United States v. Davis, 139 S. Ct. 2319 (2019) does not apply to Defendant's 924(c) conviction. (Doc. 663.) I agree. Defendant's 924(c) conviction related to his conviction of a substantive Hobbs Act robbery, which is a crime of violence and not subject to Davis. See United States v. Walker, 789 Fed. Appx. 241 (2019); United States v. Hill, 890 F.3d 51, 53 (2d Cir. 2018). Therefore, I will not appoint Defendant new counsel to file a futile motion. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail Defendant a copy of this Order, Doc. 661, Doc. 662, and Doc. 663.
